MORGS HITS THE LEAD!

Morgs bragging has finally come to fruition with him edging out all comers to grab solo top spot. A pick 9 and 6 correct in week one puts him in a nice position sitting on top. I don't believe Morgs has been leading our comp before, he has finally realised that you don't have to pick Carlton each week.

There are a few breathing down his neck though and he will have to keep on his toes if he wants the big prize!

What about the downfall of Worm? Right up the pointy end for most of last season and now languishing at the bottom, he couldn't pick his nose at the moment. I am pretty sure he had a system for tipping last year which hasn't suited this time round.

After waiting with bated breath to see how far our Pick 9 jackpot would last before someone heard a loud "KA-CHING" and collected the loot, it went off after 2 rounds! Mark picked all nine correct and was one measly point off the margin to take home the $40 jackpot, well done Mark. Unlucky were Duane and Amber who also picked 9 but were 3 and 4 points off the margin respectively. Damn close!

KO COMP CALMS DOWN

After mass eliminations last week round 2 only had one casualty, Eilileen. Not having any faith in the Saints at all she picked them to lose last week and this week. A big no no in KO world.

Don't worry, she will be back with a vengeance and her reading glasses in KO comp 2!

JOKE OF THE WEEK

The frequency of sexual activity of senior males depends on where they were born.

Statistics just released from Statistics Canada and The United Nations B.O.H. Team, revealed that:

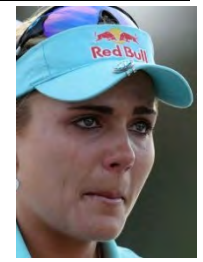

North American, Australian, New Zealanders and British men between 60 and 80 years of age, will on average, have sex two to three times per week, (and a small number a lot more and some slightly less), whereas Japanese men, in exactly the same age group, will have sex only once or twice per year if they are lucky.

This has come as very upsetting news to a lot of us at the RSL club, as none of us had any idea that we were Japanese.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Golfer LEXI THOMPSON – Bad Luck or Bad Sport?

The first LPGA major of the year has descended into controversy, after a TV viewer alerted officials to an indiscretion by leader Lexi Thompson from the previous round, prompting a four-stroke penalty.

Thompson was three shots clear in the lead after the 12th hole of her final round at Mission Hills Country Club, when officials informed her she had been penalised two strokes for incorrectly replacing her ball on the 17th green the day before.

The 22-year-old American was then penalised an additional two strokes for subsequently signing an incorrect card.

After watching the replay I reckon she cheated, she definitely put the marker to the side of the ball and replaced the ball in front of the marker.

But as we say on the first tee every Saturday "It's only cheating if someone catches you"! I rest my case.....

INTERVIEW

A quick word with Morgs while he is still on top, basking in all the glory, despite the altitude nose bleeds!

D on D: Not a bad start this season Morgs, 6 and 9 correct?.

M: Thanks, surprised the crap out of me.

D on D: Haven't picked Carlton yet?

M: Nope!

D on D: Very wise. Any chance of secretly letting me know your tips for next week, I won't tell a soul.

M: Of course, let me see. I'll go Maggies, Roos, Tigers, Demons, Port, Freo, Lions, Blues and Gold Coast.

D on D: Great, thanks Morgs, your tips are safe with me.

M: No worries, anything else I can do for you?

D on D: You could buy me a beer, VB thanks.

M: Rack off! Buy your own!

D on D: Worth a try.

M: You should be buying ME one after giving you all next weeks winners.

D on D: You don't know the Tattsлото numbers for this Saturday do you?

M: No!

D on D: Worth a try. Who do you see as your main threat in the tipping?

M: Anyone who doesn't pick Carlton.

D on D: That's all of us!

M: Then you all are the threat..... except Worm and Lumpy.

D on D: Fair enough. Thanks for your time Morgs and Go The Blues.

M: It would be nice if they have a win, one tip I won't mind getting wrong. You won't tip them will you?

D on D: No! Bye Morgs.
