DUANE'S LEAD RELINQUISHED!

Morgs has hit the lead again after Duane stole top spot off him in round 4. Morgs and Steve were the only ones to pick 7 this week, not a bad effort considering the upsets experienced. Who'd have thought The Saints, Blues, Demons and the Magpies all having a win on the same weekend? Strewth! What hope have we got?

WHERE IS KAZ'S CARDS?

A mystery has unfolded this week when Kaz and her mums cards could not be found. Kaz was seen filling them in last Friday night in the "quiet" room but they haven't been sighted since. Hmm... a bit of a head scratcher. Maybe Kaz thought her tips were rubbish and piffed them in the bin? Who knows? If Kaz shows up with her cards and got 9 right there will be questions asked!

STATUS QUO IN KO COMP

Still Vinnie and Shayne are alive in the KO Comp with them both picking correct winners again. Next week we may introduce the "Cellar Dweller" rule where they can't pick any of the bottom 4 to lose, that'll sort 'em out! Couldn't do it this week as they both picked teams in the top 8 to win AND lose.....and the buggers were right!

JOKE OF THE WEEK

An Irishman goes to the Doctor with botty problems..

"Dactor, it's me arse. I'd like ya ta teyk a look, if ya woot."

So the doctor gets him to drop his pants and takes a look.

"Incredible", he says, "there is a £20 note lodged up here."

Tentatively he eases the twenty out of the man's bottom, and then a £10 note appears.

"This is amazing!" exclaims the Doctor. "What do you want me to do?"

"Well fur gadness sake teyk it out, man!" shrieks the patient.

The doctor pulls out the tenner and another twenty appears, and another and another and another, etc.....

Finally the last bill comes out and no more appear.

"Ah Dactor, tank ya koindly, dat's moch batter. Just out of interest, how moch was in dare den?"

The Doctor counts the pile of cash and says "£1,990 exactly."

"Ah, dat'd be roit," says the Irishman "I knew I wasn't feeling two grand"

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Anthony Cummings on his Dad Bart...."He taught me everything I know, but not everything he knows!"

POWER LEARNING TABLE MANNERS

Port Adelaide are grooming their cultural awareness ahead of the historic trip to Shanghai where they will face Gold Coast at Jiangwan Sports Centre on Sunday week. Players have even taken to learning a touch of Mandarin in a bid to ready themselves for life in China's biggest city. The Power and Suns have seconded a cultural awareness company to give the players some idea of what to expect - and what not to do.

Examples:

- You are not allowed to enter a room until the heirarhcy have. Everyone follows the leaders and bosses into the room afterwards, we have to follow in behind Boaky
- Chopsticks - if you can't do it, that's fine, but it's important to have a go. You don't actually sit your chopsticks across the table, you place them in the little chopstick holders
- The greet is a little bit of a bow. When you are handing people business cards or gifts or anything, you always give with two hands, one handers are disrespectful

This is all well and good but did they teach them to have a yen for 4 premiership points?

INTERVIEW

With the mystery surrounding the missing cards I thought I should go straight to the source.....KAZ!

D on D: Hi Kaz, we can't find your or Irene's tipping cards, any clues?

K: What have you done wif 'em?

D on D: Nothing, they weren't in Fort Knox, we got every card out on Friday night.

K: I'm sure I put 'em in wif the others.

D on D: No, not a sign of them. I saw you filling them out, then what happened to them, can you remember?

K: Yeah, I filled 'em out, I talked wif Glen and I ummm oh I'm not sure now!

D on D: Did you put them in the wrong letter box?

K: How many letter boxes do we 'ave?

D on D: One.

K: That's the one I put it in then!

D on D: Maybe they have vanished into thin air?

K: Don't be stupid.

D on D: Sorry. Wriggle your nose, maybe they will appear?

K: OK, how's that?

D: Nothing, looks like Artie and I will have to have a meeting, thanks Kaz.

K: My pleasure.
