DROP THE HANKY!

FIRE THE GUN!

WAVE THE FLAG!

WE ARE AWAY!!!!!!!!!!!!

The 2018 season is underway tonight with a horde of tipsters ready to do battle over 23 rounds of Footy. Case has even put his mouthguard in!

Morgs is the reigning champion and the one to beat again this year but that was six months ago and there has been a few changes amongst the 18 teams, but who has got the mix right?

Can the Magpies defy popular opinion and win a few games?

Will Brisbane re-find it's triple flag form and reel in the favourites?

With the way the Doggies and the Tigers have taken home the lollies in the last couple of years who knows who will poke their noggin out of the pack and snatch the coveted prize.

Maybe the year of the Saints?

Maybe the year of the Kangas?

Maybe the year of the Blues?...sorry, now I am just being stupid, but hey isn't that the theme?

THINGS TO LOOK FORWARD TO THIS YEAR

- Rocking up to the RSL and putting your tips on.
- Seven, yes, count them, SEVEN bloody Thursday night games. Have we got enough clout to demand a meeting with Gil McLachlan? I doubt it. (Remember you can put Thursdays game on and do the rest Friday, no problems).
- The KO Comp, lot's of fun trying to pick just one measly winner. I got knocked out first round last year so I am going to really knuckle down this year, I'm thinking the Blues to beat Richmond?
- Tip the whole season is proving popular with the BBQ half way and at the end of the season. Grab a card, set aside 10 minutes and fill the whole bloody thing in! Strewth!
- Putting a margin on the first game of each round (week by week tipping only). The ladder will be decided by accumulated margins this year, we will guarantee a prize down to fifth place, but if you forget you will get the worst margin plus one. (unless Scotty goes in again this year, one week he put a margin of 900 points!)

INTERVIEW

I am a bit worried about security around here. I think we have a leak.

As soon as I thought about a meeting with Gil McLachlan the phone rang and bugger me dead it was the head honcho himself. Spooky. Just as well I tape all my phone conversations.

D on D: Hello.

GIL McL: Hi, Gil McLachlan here, is this D from D on D?

D: Yes.

GIL McL: I heard a whisper down the pipe line that you were unhappy with the AFL?.

D on D: Well Gil, I can call you Gil?

GIL McL: Gil, Gilbo will do, but not what my wife calls me.

D on D: What's that?

GIL McL: Gilpott.

D on D: Oh, any way I have an issue with fixturing. The Thursday night games are killing us we are only open 2 nights a week and you bung on shloads of Thursdy games and the folks only have one beer cause thay have to work the next day and it's just not fair to our lovely club.

GIL McL: Did you take a breath then?

D on D: No.

GIL McL: Well I didn't realise it had such a huge impact on the Monbulk RSL, and I promise I will look hard at how many early games we have next season. Any other fixturing issues.

D on D: Yes, Carlton are playing too many teams that finished higher on the ladder than them.

GIL McL: I see. That means you only play Brisbane and Gold Coast.

D on D: You catch on quick, look into it for me will you?

GIL McL: Believe me I couldn't be any more excited about that prospect.

D on D: Thanks Gil, now that I have got that off my chest I feel a lot better.

GIL McL: That's good, bye now.

D on D: Bye Gilbo.

There may be weeks where D on D does not come out this season but results and the ladder will be available each week. Cheers, D on D.

BE WARNED

I received a book as a gift.

The Very Embarrassing Book of Dad Jokes.

Please practice groaning prior to the next edition.....
