FOUR PICK NINE!

Four tipsters got off to a flyer by picking all 9 correct but Dave nailed the 20 smackeroonies by having the best margin. How stiff was Darren, one point off! But good tipping by Artie and Don M also sees them sitting pretty up the pointy end.

The margins are important this season so pleeeeeease don't forget to put one on the first game of each round. Though I must admit Bryan was the only one to forget, Steve and Alyce and Dean weren't eligible as they couldn't tip the first game

Feel sorry for Alyce and Dean, they decided to go in the comp but 4 matches had already been played! Sorry guys, no retrospective tipping but I am sure they are good enough to fight back.

KO COMP

Aren't we clever? 22 tipsters in the KO Comp and we all picked correctly.

Thrust those chests out and maybe a touch of prancing, make the most of it, this gets a lot harder.....

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

MELBOURNE

Gawn: 'I'd have sledged me, too'

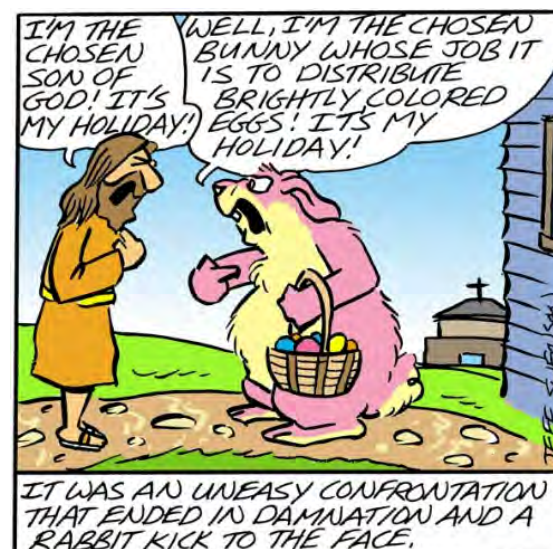

Geelong's Cam Guthrie gave Gawn a mouthful after missing the goal to win the game for Melbourne, Guthrie later apologised to the big fella in the MCG car park.

JOKES

I've been dating a homeless woman recently, and I think it's starting to get serious...

She's asked me to move out with her.

Happy Easter ☺

INTERVIEW

It was hard to decide who to interview this week with 4 very clever tippers getting them all correct but I decided to go with Dave, he got the closest margin.

It was a battle tracking this bloke down but I finally caught up with him just before D on D's deadline.....

D on D: Good tipping this week Dave.

D: Yeah, a bit lucky.

D on D: How did you manage it?

D: The same as Artie and Don I reckon, we went the favourites.

D on D: What about Darren?

D: He was just lucky the Saints won.

D on D: I see. Do you have any golden rules?

D: Just life essentials passed down through the family.

D on D: Is that so? Like what?

D: Blow your nose after you have a crap, pick your nose before you cut your fingernails, simple but essential advice.

D on D: I meant golden rules for footy tipping.

D: Oh. Don't tip against an unchanged side.

D on D: Not bad advice. How do you think your season will go?

D: Usually down hill but I have won this before.

D on D: Because you run it?

D: Barley Charlie, it was when Pete ran it!

D on D: So where do you reckon you will finish?

D: I don't care, as long I am higher on the ladder than Mark, Gilbert, Darren and Bloody Mick!

D on D: Side bet?

D: You betcha.

D on D: Well thanks for your time Dave but next time could you make yourself a bit more available?

D: No promises...

At the time of writing I am not sure if the club is open Good Friday so please ensure you get your tips on Thursday night (with Margin for the Adelaide Richmond game)
